Step Up to Secondary

HK$4,710  18 hours

This course aims to help you cross the bridge into secondary. It is based around secondary school subjects and explores topics, such as travelling and the environment, that are related to your daily life. Activities are designed to encourage natural communication through individual, pair and group activities.

You will also:
• learn useful and functional language for secondary school
• improve your pronunciation and intonation
• develop your group interaction skills
• expand your vocabulary and learn interesting ways to extend ideas.

Six 3-hour lessons over two or three weeks

Crime and Mystery

HK$4,710  18 hours

In this course, you will plan a film remake, make a film pitch and write a review for the film. You will produce a variety of texts linked to the topic of crime – improving your ability to write in different genres.

You will also:
• learn how to express your opinions and discuss and compare ideas during the project
• learn vocabulary for talking about crime, justice and people
• review and practise grammar used in narratives
• develop writing skills and techniques that will help you write a story, a film review and a newspaper article
• get tips on making a film pitch.

Six 3-hour lessons over two or three weeks

Trending Now

HK$4,710  18 hours

In this course, you will put your creativity and new vocabulary to practical use by working with other students in the class to design social media content.

You will also:
• learn how to express your opinions and discuss and compare ideas about social media
• develop language and techniques for writing digital content for different audiences and presenting this
• learn vocabulary and develop arguments that you will then use in a debate about online privacy
• improve your confidence and presentation skills.

Six 3-hour lessons over three weeks
Junior Secondary Writers

HK$4,710  18 hours

This course will focus on important writing skills such as note-taking, planning, drafting and editing to help you become a more confident writer in English. You will improve your vocabulary and speaking skills through having discussions, conducting research and interviewing classmates. You will plan and write a comic, a short story, a biography, a newspaper or magazine article, an email to a friend and two different kinds of poetry.

Six 3-hour lessons over two or three weeks
